Youth Intern Standards

“Therefore, as God’s chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. Bear with each other and forgive whatever grievances you may have against one another. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity. Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom, and as you sing psalms, hymns and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.” Colossians 3:12-17

Dress

Dress modestly: no short shorts, short skirts, tee shirts with inappropriate messages, low necklines, or tight clothing. As role models and teachers, personal dress carries a responsibility to be acceptable, not questionable. This subject is of particular concern to a number of parents (especially mothers of teen boys.)

General Behavior

Use of alcohol or tobacco is prohibited on youth ministry time.

Coarse joking or language is inappropriate.

Greet and be polite to parents. Remember they are an important part of our ministry. Introduce yourself as an intern, and interact with them. Parents appreciate learning about our ministry and you, the young adult who is involved in their children’s lives.

Be polite to the administrative staff when you enter the office and show them, as well as other staff members, the utmost respect.

Be respectful of church property and handle all equipment carefully and responsibly.

Contact Time With Teens

Communicate clearly and respectfully with parents. Do not be alone with a student of the opposite sex anywhere. Always wear seatbelts! Observe speed limits! Seek to participate in activities that will promote communication and the advancement of God’s work.
