

Dan Iverson, EP Mission Conference 2024
Keynote Speaker – Sat & Sun, Chapel

Dan and Carol Iverson have served 35 years in Japan as PCA/Mission to the World missionaries. Their work has focused on evangelism, church planting, presbytery planting, starting a Christian school, and raising up missionaries and Japanese leaders. Dan served as a church planter and lead pastor for Oyumino Presbyterian Church in a Tokyo suburb for 28 years, and as the PCA MTW Japan Country Director of the last 15 years. Carol served as principal of Covenant Community School International for 12 years.

Currently based in the U.S., Dan has handed off duties as pastor, team leader, and country director, and now focuses on mentoring, coaching church planters, teaching/preaching, and recruiting. Many of his weekends are spent leading mission conferences. Carol handed off duties as principal in an MTW school and now focuses on mentoring women, Parakaleo training for women, Japan member care, and teaching. The Iversons have nine children and 35 grandchildren.

Having served in Africa for decades, Dan trains pastors in Bible and theology with the goals of planting churches in the U.S. and in West Africa. Dan and Janet also serve as member care coordinators for MTW missionaries and national partners in Sub-Saharan Africa.

MISSION FEST

Craig and Maria Garriott and Stan Long | Baltimore Antioch Leadership Movement (BALM) | Baltimore | Sun | Rm. 101

Craig and Maria started BALM in 2019. Their mission is to raise cross-cultural, disciple-making leaders for community-transforming churches through training and mentoring at Metro Baltimore Seminary, training and deploying micro-church leaders, and coaching and assisting churches in renewal.

Ryan Bratt and Amanda Jakana | (RUF) | University of Maryland | Sun | Rm. Cove

Ryan and Amanda are working together to reach University students through English conversation, Bible study, and student activities.

Rich Hansen | EP Church | Ethiopia | Sun | Rm. 001

Rich attends and on occasion preaches at Annapolis EP Church. He travels to Ethiopia two or three times per year where he has a growing ministry building leadership capacity among African leaders and their teams through coaching seminars, but also gains insights into the challenges facing all African Christians and mission in the 21st century.

Satoshi and Cally Hawachi | MTW | France | Sun | Fishbowl (Cove)

Satoshi and Cally teach and train disciples and minister to refugees and immigrants in Western Europe.

Emily Andre | Teach Beyond | Germany | Sat & Sun | Rm. Parlor

Emily grew up at EP. She has made a 2-year commitment with Teach Beyond to serve as an occupational therapist at Black Forest Christian Academy in Kandern, Germany.
